

Attending an education centre brings a range of opportunities and experiences that will support your child's learning and development.

Your child will build relationships with other children and adults.

Your child will learn from other children.

Your child will learn through playing what they enjoy.

Your child will learn some independence.

Your child will learn by doing new routines.

The centre can support your child's transition to school.

You will form new relationships with centre staff.

You will be able to share information about your child.

Your family will become part of your local community.

To learn more about this practice, please see our flyer The Benefits of Attending an Early Childhood Education and Care \(ECEC\) Centre. or scan the QR code.